Chairman Woodruff of the New York Republican committee is in great distress and has appealed to President Roosevelt to repudiate a campaign document issued by Hearst, publishing extracts of speeches by Mr. Roosevelt who said about the same things for which Mr. Hearst is being denounced. The President won't talk, but will send Secretary Root up to make a speech expressing his views.

Up to yesterday 58 dead and 10 missing is the report concerning the horrible bridge accident at Atlantic City, N. J. on Sunday.

At Springfield, Mass., yesterday, a speaker at the W. C. T. U. convention declared that young white women are sold at auction in New York and in Chicago 10,000 girls are imperiled by 5,000 saloons; the cigars of fathers and pastors and the dope of mothers was mentioned as menaces to the immortality of boys and girls. The band of Ute Indians in Wyoming threatens to fight the soldiers, declaring that they would rather be killed than be taken back to Utah to starve. The white settlers are so alarmed that they threaten to exterminate the objectionable Red Skins.

In a decision by Judge Waddill of the Federal court at Norfolk, yesterday, he held that towing tugs are liable for losses at sea when they are not properly equipped with extra towing lines in case of an emergency.

As a result of the performance of "The Clansman" at Brookhaven, Miss., negroes have organized a white cap band and begun a series of depredations on whites. At Franklin, O., yesterday a mob attacked the jail to lynch a negro murderer, and was chasing the innocent colored residents out of the town last night.

New York Markets: money on call strong 4 to 6 per cent, ruling rate 4 3/4 closing bid 6, offered at 7, spot cotton steady 10.50; flour firm; wheat steady, No. 2 red $2 1/4 elevator; corn firm, No. 2, 56 elevator; oats firm, mixed 38; turpentine firm 69 1/4 to 69 3/4; rosin firm.

In alluding to Congressman Dalzell yesterday morning we inadvertently said he formerly represented his district as a Democrat. We had in mind Mr. Sibley, instead of Mr. Dalzell.

Iron has advanced $7 a ton in price. If this thing keeps up the poker will become too expensive an article to be used on a good-for-nothing husband.

A lot of newspapers and people in New York declare that Hearst is not fit to be governor of New York. The voters, however, may take it into their heads that such opinions are inspired by "predatory" individuals.

Sir Thomas Lipton, of England, says "American women are the best in the world." After making a remark like that he will have every woman in the country wishing very sincerely that in the next regatta his yacht will win the America cup.

"If there were a law requiring a man's head to be chopped off for lying, many a man's head would fall into the sawdust," says an exchange. No doubt every man thinks he could rake around in the sawdust and identify some of the heads.

A politician inquires: "Do United States Senators represent the people in the concrete or the abstract?" Some Republican Senators, according to the evidence passed upon by juries in the Federal courts, seem to have acted on the abstract plan.

Says the Richmond Times-Dispatch: "Professor Felix Adler, who says that Americans are too optimistic, is obviously not a reader of the Brisbane editorials." Such opinions as that coming from Prof. Adler, is sufficient evidence that he has had his feet under the mahogany with people who are always insisting on popping one more cork.

The Ute Indians, whose raid into Wyoming threatens to cause trouble, apparently stand for paternalism. They want President Roosevelt to give them the Powder River valley for hunting grounds. Probably the benighted Red Man thinks he might as well have some good pickings thrown his way as for the tariff beneficiaries to be the whole cheese when it comes to clutches.

QUARANTINED FOR TERM

United States District Court in Session in This City for Criminal Causes.

LITTLE OF INTEREST AS YET

B. F. Pearsall, Foreman of Grand Jury. Only One True Bill Returned—Case of Alleged Shanghaiing—Other Matters Disposed of.

Further than the mere formality of organization for the term, there was very little of interest in the proceedings of the United States District Court at its opening session in this city yesterday. Judge Thos. R. Purnell and all other officers of the court were in attendance when the term was convened at 10:30 o'clock in the morning. A large number of witnesses, defendants, jurors and attorneys were in attendance. Jno. W. Carter, Jno. W. Galloway and Jno. W. Brown were sworn in as bailiffs of the court and T. A. Watson as crier.

The grand jury was drawn and sworn in with B. F. Pearsall, of Duplin, as foreman as follows: B. F. Pearsall, J. F. Hilburn, Martin Chastan, Burgwin Sellars, Benj. K. Gore, John Rouse, H. E. Dupree, George L. Boney, Samuel Seligier, L. M. Chavis, T. E. Hayes, R. L. Player, Isaac Shepard, E. L. McCormac, James Arnett, J. A. Turlington, James Britt and Alexander Russell. The grand jury got down to work at once but had returned only one true bill when court took a recess for the day at 1:50 o'clock in the afternoon. The true bill was against D. McN. Ray, of Cumberland, charged with violation of the revenue laws. A number of other cases were inquired into but the bills will not be returned until court convenes this morning. The six sailors held in the New Hanover jail as witnesses in the case of alleged shanghaiing against Capt. Lauchlin McLean of the British steamer, Osceola, were brought out during the day and went before the jury. It is presumed that a bill will be returned this morning and the case undertaken as early as possible, though it is regularly set for Thursday according to the rule.

Judge Purnell's charge to the grand jury was regarded by those who heard it as very clear and comprehensive. A sensational feature of the day's proceedings occurred as His Honor was concluding his charge. Two young men, who gave their names as G. Graves and Pete Lang, were seen to be very drunk and distracting the attention of some from the business of the court. Judge Purnell ordered them both to jail and they were duly committed by Deputy Marshal R. W. Ward. It is presumed that the young men will be attached for contempt of court today.

The following cases were disposed of yesterday: E. T. Britt, Sampson county; violation of postal laws; fined $250 and costs. Julia Johnson, New Hanover; retailing; 30 days in jail, $100 fine and costs; judgment suspended on payment of costs and U. S. license for one term and a half. Ferry Jones, Scotland county; retailing; pleaded guilty; judgment suspended, defendant having served 12 months on roads from State Court. J. Luther Smith, Robeson county; set fa dismissed on payment of costs of same.

TO GET IMMIGRANTS

Bureau of Southern States Commission to be Established in Wilmington and Charlotte—Its Aims and Purposes.

It is announced that Wilmington will be one of the two cities in North Carolina at which the Southern States Immigration Commission will establish one of its bureaus. Secretary T. K. Bruner, of the Agricultural Department at Raleigh, is president of the commission, which was organized last June and has for its purpose the fostering of immigration and the furnishing of desirable labor to the South, protecting the interests of the various States and guarding against labor agencies and misrepresentations as to immigrants.

A bureau of information is conducted in New York, giving facts concerning the development and resources of the Southern States and showing the opportunities for foreign laborers in this section. Up to date the commission has brought in the neighborhood of 1,800 immigrants to the South about 120 of whom have settled in North Carolina.

The commission advertises extensively in foreign papers and, in this way, gets in direct communication with immigrants. The commission has letters from prospective immigrants of various European countries. The plan is to make definite arrangements for employment before the foreigners come South. Upon landing in New York they sign a labor contract which guarantees them transportation to this section and the kind of work they desire. Germans, Swedes and Hungarians are the principal nationalities that have been brought over thus far.

The other agency of the commission has already been established in Charlotte, the centre of the great milling interests, and Mr. David Robinson, formerly in the employ of the government, is in charge. From an interview with Mr. Robinson published in the Charlotte Observer, it is learned that it is the purpose of the commission to land the immigrants here and take them into the interior wherever needed. The development of the movement will be watched with great interest in the State.

NO SPEAKING TO-NIGHT.

Conflict of Dates Cancels Appointment of Mr. Godwin Until Friday.

Owing to a conflict of dates, Hon. H. L. Godwin, Democratic nominee for Congress in this district, will not come to the city to-night as previously announced, having a conflict of date with Raeford, Columbus county. He will be here, however, on Friday night and will address the voters of the First and Fifth wards especially from improvised stands to be erected at Fourth and Harnett and Fifth and Castle streets.

CASE OF MUTINEERS

Motion Filed in the United States Court Yesterday—District Attorney Skinner Will See the President in Regard to Case.

With the convening of the United States District Court in Wilmington this week, there is renewed interest in the efforts that are being put forth to save the necks of Adams and Sawyer, the two negro mutineers in the New Hanover jail under sentence of death on December 15th, the President of the United States having recently reprieved them until that date.

Iredell Meares, Esq., for Attorney George L. Peschau, yesterday filed in the United States Court here a copy of the motion he is making with the United States Supreme Court in the case providing for a new trial of the case, should the same be granted. Judge Purnell, of course, would not consider the motion until the matter is passed upon by the Supreme Court. It was filed with the Court merely as a form until the point is passed upon by the higher authority.

Col. Harry Skinner, United States District Attorney, has just received a letter from the Department of Justice at Washington, stating that the President desired to talk with him about the case of the mutineers and suggesting that he come to Washington on December 5th, for an interview with Mr. Roosevelt at the White House. Unless there are developments in the meantime, it is expected that this conference of Col. Skinner with the President will have a most important bearing on the final determination of the fate of the men. The President leaves next week for Panama to be away some weeks, hence the late date that is named for the conference. Col. Skinner will be engaged in the Federal Court at Raleigh on December 5th, but will, of course, arrange to see the President as appointed.

A PRETTY WEDDING

Miss Mildred Davis Attractive Bride of Mr. Robert Bradford Adams.

IN SAINT JOHN'S CHURCH

Impressive Ceremony by Dr. Carmichael, the Rector, Joined in Marriage Prominent Young People—Complimentary Dance.

A marriage of much social interest to a large number of friends in this city and elsewhere because of the prominence of the young people to the marriage vow was that of Miss Mildred Davis and Mr. Robert Bradford Adams, which was solemnized yesterday evening at six o'clock in Saint John's Episcopal church, the rector, the Rev. Dr. James Carmichael, officiating. It is described by those who witnessed it as one of the prettiest weddings ever celebrated in historic St. John's. The interior of the church had been beautifully decorated with ferns, flowers and potted plants while stately palms were used to splendid effect at advantageous positions about the chancel and the altar. Numerous wax tapers from prettily burnished candelabra shed a soft glow over the marriage scene, which was witnessed and admired by a large assemblage of wedding guests.

A programme of classical selections was rendered by the organist, Mrs. H. E. O'Keefe, as the guests assembled and promptly at the hour named the bridal chorus from Lohengrin announced the approach of the bridal party. First came the groomsmen, Messrs. Frederick H. Young, Leroy Reinburg, John Hall, George P. James and C. McD. Davis, immediately followed by the maid of honor, Miss Elliott Emerson and the bride on the arm of her father, Capt. R. B. Davis. The groom, accompanied by Mr. T. G. Crapster, his best man, entered from the rector's study and joined the bride at the altar where the solemn words that made them man and wife were impressively said by the rector. Mendelssohn's Wedding March filled the large auditorium with its music and the party retired from the church in graceful precision in reverse order from that used in entering.

The bride was very pretty in a gown of white point lace and carried a lovely bouquet of bride's roses and Lilies of the Valley. The maid of honor was becomingly gowned in white chiffon and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. The male attendants were in evening dress with boutonnières of roses.

From the church the party repaired to the station of the Atlantic Coast Line whence they departed on the northbound train for a wedding trip of two weeks to several northern cities, including a visit to the home of the groom's parents at Cambridge, Mass. Upon their return they will be at home at Mrs. Cronly's corner Fifth and Orange streets, this city.

The bride is a daughter of Capt. and Mrs. R. B. Davis and by her gentle disposition and attractive personality has drawn to herself a great many friends. The groom is a member of the staff of officers of the United States Revenue Cutter Seminole, stationed at this port, and is held in the very highest esteem by a large number of friends made during his sojourn in this city. It will be a pleasure for the friends of both the bride and groom to welcome them as residents of Wilmington upon their return from their honeymoon.

In honor of the bridal party a beautiful dance was given last night in the Masonic Temple by the L'Ariseo Club. The decorations were elaborate, a distinguishing feature having been a floral arch in which were entwined the names of the bride and groom. The dance was led by Mr. Richard Bradley and among those present and dancing were the following:

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. C. Van Leuven, Mr. and Mrs. H. Gwaltney, Mr. and Mrs. J. McRee Hatch, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Nash, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Metts, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. MacRae, of Fayetteville; Miss Anna Parsley, Mr. H. M. Chase, Miss Jeanie Peck, Mr. George P. James, Miss Madeline DeRosset, Mr. W. G. W. Kraft, Miss Amy Harlow, Mr. West, Miss May Ella Rankin, Mr. Herbert Rapelle, Miss Jane Iredell Green, Dr. Thomas M. Green, Miss Leonora Cantwell, Mr. R. A. Williams, Miss Jennie Murchison, Mr. Milton Calder, Miss Margaret Nash, Mr. Robert Calder, Miss Alice Davis, Mr. P. W. Davis, Mrs. Jessie Wise, Mr. A. S. Williams. Stags—Messrs. R. H. Bradley, Crosswell Ragin, Graham Kenan and Hugh McRae.

AN EXPORT RECORD

Over Thirty-Eight Thousand Bales of Cotton, Valued at More Than Two Million, on Three Steamers Cleared in a Single Day.

Over thirty-eight thousand bales of cotton, valued at more than two million dollars, were exported from Wilmington by Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son on three British steamers which were cleared from the Custom House yesterday. Two of the cargoes go to Liverpool, the great cotton port of the world, and the third goes to Bremen, Germany.

The vessels and their cargoes are as follows: The British steamer Lord Cuyzon, Capt. Steele, 14,383 bales, valued at $819,700; the British steamer Osceola, Capt. McLean, 13,808 bales, valued at $794,000, and the British steamer Huron, Capt. Thomas, 10,000 bales, valued at $576,100. The two first named are for Liverpool and the Huron is for Bremen. Barring accidents the big ships will be towed down the river this morning.

It is believed that no other South Atlantic cotton port ever made a larger clearance of the staple in a single day than that by Messrs. Sprunt & Son yesterday. With the departure of the three vessels named four other large steamers are at the Champion Compress for cargoes and will be dispatched by Messrs. Sprunt & Son just as soon as possible. Ships leaving Wilmington have carried larger single cargoes than that carried by any of those yesterday, the record cargo being something over 17,000 bales, but there has never been a single day in the history of the port when the aggregate exports were greater.

Ships of the class handled by Messrs. Sprunt & Son lie in port at an expense of hundreds of dollars per day and they are not given to waiting for one another or being held to make records for the firm, therefore, the fact that three of them were loaded at one and the same time and dispatched in a single day speaks volumes for the splendid organization at the compress and the vast interests that are represented here.

Disorderly Negro Driver.

Yesterday afternoon J. E. Sykes, a respectable colored man of the city, while driving around the corner of Water and Market streets, was held up by the negro driver of a coal cart, who refused to open the thoroughfare to traffic. Upon his being insisted upon to allow other vehicles to pass, the negro cursed Sykes and used all manner of vile language toward him. Search was made for an officer and in the meantime the driver escaped, but he was recognized by several bystanders and will be brought to justice by the outraged colored citizen.

LABORERS STRUCK

Negroes at Almont Factory Walked Out Upon Refusal of Demand For Higher Wages Which Was Later Granted—A Problem.

Between one hundred and twenty-five and one hundred and fifty colored laborers employed at the Almont factory of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company up the river struck for higher wages when the whistle blew for the day shift to go to work at the plant Monday morning. The demand was for an increase from $1.25 to $1.50 per day and for a time it was refused. The hands remained out from 7 to 9 o'clock in the morning when they were granted the increase asked and they returned to work. The company was poorly prepared to meet the strike because of the busy season and the arrival of several vessels from abroad with fertilizer constituents.

The scarcity of labor at Wilmington is becoming very serious and industrial plants having any sort of a supply are glad to retain the men at any price. Unskilled laborers are in great demand not only in the city but in all the surrounding country where cotton fields remain white because there is not sufficient labor to gather the crop. On the wharf reliable men are exceedingly scarce and the question of the importation of labor from other sections is being generally discussed. Foreign immigration to take the place of the inadequate and unreliable force of unskilled laborers at present is urged as the only solution of the problem.

NOBLE & MONTGOMERY.

THE COMPANY WINS

No Error Found by Supreme Court in Sewerage Case from New Hanover.

FAYETTEVILLE STREET R'WY

Wins Title to Abandoned Track to Hope Mills—Dr. Matthews Must Serve Sentence—Other Raleigh News Notes.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 30.—In the case of Solomon vs. The Wilmington Sewerage Company involving the right of the sewerage company to advance charges for sewerage connections on many citizens holding contracts with an old company that had sold out to one now owning the franchise, the Supreme Court rules in favor of the sewerage company finding no error in the injunction proceeding below in which the Superior Court judge dismissed the application for an injunction to prevent the company from advancing the charge to those holding contracts with the old company. The court bases the ruling on the ground that the contract with the old company was uncertain in regard to its duration and that there is an absence of mutuality in the obligation. The Court says:

"We incline to the opinion that if we were to accept the plaintiff's view of it and give them the right to use the sewerage at the contract rate for 60 years, in view of the character of the contract, its subject matter, defendant's duty to render equal service at equal rates to all citizens of Wilmington, the contract would be unreasonable and, therefore, plaintiffs would not be entitled to the decree demanded."

In the case of the Fayetteville Street Railway Company vs. the Aberdeen and Rockfish Railroad Company from Cumberland, involving the right to use the old abandoned track of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad from Fayetteville to Hope Mills, the street car company wins. The street car company had organized last August and its directors had adopted the old road bed to Hope Mills for its use for a suburban line when the railroad company attempted to take the same route by condemnation proceedings to get into Fayetteville. The court holds that the street car company has a prior right by having located its line first, no matter if the capital stock was not paid in nor any part of even its track in the city laid at that time.

Other notable opinions are: Weeks vs. Spooner, from New Hanover, no error; State vs. Matthews, Guilford, no error. This is the case in which Dr. J. B. Matthews was convicted of second degree murder and sentenced to 20 years for poisoning his wife.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 30.—Governor Glenn issued commissions to Drs. R. H. Lewis, Raleigh; S. W. Battle, Asheville; P. L. Murphy, Morganton; W. H. H. Cobb, Jr., Goldsboro; Albert Anderson, Wilson; George G. Thomas, Wilmington and W. P. Bell, Greenville, and Dr. Hanes Winston, as delegates on the part of North Carolina to the American Congress of tuberculosis to be held in New York November 13 to 16.

The Corporation Commission will make their rulings in the suit by Secretary of State J. Bryan Grimes against the Southern Bell Telephone Company to fix rates for local and long distance service, just as soon as Col. Grimes files his written argument in the case. The Bell Company has filed its argument and Col. Grimes' brief is delayed on account of his being out just now in the campaign. The rates demanded by Col. Grimes are $24 per month for business houses; $12 for residences and five cents per minute for the first five minutes and two and one-half cents for each minute in excess of five. The Commission will probably allow somewhat higher rates.

DR. HALE PREACHING.

Services Continue at the First Baptist Church—Accessions.

The Rev. Dr. Hale, pastor of the First Baptist Church, is preaching nightly to good congregations. Services will continue the remainder of this week. The sermon last night was a practical one on the subject of winning souls for Christ. The text was: "He brought him to Jesus." There were five additions to the church Monday night and two last night. Tomorrow and Saturday nights Dr. Hale will administer the ordinance of baptism. His sermon tomorrow night will be on baptism.

COASTWISE SHIPPING TRUST.

In spite of the efforts of the public to secure competition in all branches of industry and transportation, the policy of eliminating competition and establishing monopolies goes right on. The latest most formidable monopoly is the organization of the coastwise steamship lines into one concern. The New York Journal of Commerce says of it:

"Mr. Morse's acquisition of the Malory Line, after gaining control of the Clyde, Hudson River, Metropolitan, or 'outside' line to Boston, and the Eastern Steamship Company's lines to Maine ports, together with his plan for organizing a holding company for the stock of the different corporations, will result in establishing a trust in the coastwise trade of the Atlantic and Gulf ports. It will not constitute a monopoly at present, and there may be difficulty in bringing into the combination the water lines which are controlled by the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, but it is not impossible that the Old Dominion and Savannah lines may be absorbed. In any case such a degree of control over the coastwise trade will be obtained as to exercise a dominating influence upon the whole volume, and make further combination easier, if not inevitable.

"The 'trust' threatens to be in practical control of rates for water transportation along our Eastern and Southern coast line. It will be in its power to lower them to particular points for the purpose of crushing out competition, and to raise them when that is accomplished to 'what the traffic will bear,' and it will bear a good deal under the present monopoly of American coasting vessels. The only effective competition will come from the railroads that reach the same points on the coast, and they cannot make their transportation as cheap as that by water without putting burdensome charges upon traffic to non-competitive points. There are few chartered or tramp steamers in this trade, and the sailing vessels are in danger of being swamped, with the help of the pilot and other port charges of some of the Southern States. These latter will help the trust to gain the monopoly at which it appears to be aiming in the coasting trade, at least so near a monopoly as to have the same practical effect. These water lines along the coast do not come under the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission, and under one control their rates and charges can be regulated and adjusted at any time to serve the purpose of the controlling power.

"There seems to be only one way to escape from this scheme of dominating the coastwise trade on this side of the continent, and that is to open it to the competition of all comers in ocean transportation. Our navigation laws now confine it to American-built and American-owned vessels. This is equivalent to protection, not by a high tariff but by the absolute prohibition of foreign competition in our trade. It used to be the argument for a protective tariff that after it had resulted in establishing our industries on a firm footing domestic competition would bring prices down to a normal level and enable us to compete with foreigners without protection. This result, if it was the original purpose of protective duties, has been defeated by combinations behind the tariff wall for keeping prices up.

"In the coastwise trade there has been competition which has had considerable effect in keeping charges down, though the exclusion of all foreign shipping enabled domestic ship-owners to continue excessive rates. If there is to be an effective combination there will be no restraint upon charges for this service except the ineffectual one of competition by rail and by sailing vessels. If the monopoly now secured to American-built and American-owned vessels should be withdrawn, and our coasting trade, like that between nations on the sea, be open to general competition, the result would be not only the end of all trusts in this business, but cheap transportation which would be of vast benefit to our domestic trade of all kinds, especially with the South, and wherever water communication along the coast was available. Some domestic shipowners and builders would be hurt, unless they discovered that they could hold their own in fair competition, but industries and trade all along the coast and to a considerable distance inland would be greatly benefited. Protectionists contend that industrial trusts and monopolies cannot be broken down by lowering or removing duties. Their logic is greatly at fault, but they can hardly venture to deny that free competition in the coasting trade would prevent all restraint there by steamship combinations."

Sometimes the consolidation of enterprises is a distinct advantage to the public but as a general thing the combination of corporations is not. The combination of the steamship lines affects Wilmington and every Southern port, and in many quarters the monopoly of coastwise shipping is looked upon with consternation. This latest monopoly may seriously affect all our ports but that remains to be seen.

With all the talk about and opposition to trusts, the laws of the States are still lax upon the subject. The States create the corporations and it is strange it is not provided in the charters that one corporation cannot consolidate with the other without consent by the Legislature of the State which charters it, or the concurrence of a Legislature in a State in which combined corporations expect to do business. If every charter contained a provision that it became null and void upon consolidation with another corporation, these vast combinations could in a measure be prevented.

When I was young, say 26 years old, I would sometimes take a dram, and I would get tight every Xmas, and not any more for a year or so; but when I was about 30 years old I had a very severe case of fever and when convalescent the doctor put me on toddy and egg flip, and from that I took more and more until I could not be satisfied only when I was under the influence of it all the time; and I drank for years in that way until I was a perfect wreck and the delirium set in and then, how miserable I was! I wanted to quit, but I could not; and I heard of the Keeley Cure and I went to the Institute at Greensboro, N. C., and was cured of the vile habit that nothing else could cure but the Keeley Treatment. I thank God for providing such a means to save men's body and soul from the terrible thirst that hangs over him. I have not tasted a drop of intoxicating drinks since I left the Keeley Institute and do not wait any, and would not take it for the world.

Pretty stiff reading, that! Science says that a man cannot hope to read more than eight thousand books in an ordinary lifetime; yet, according to this statement, Mr. Dixon has read five thousand books in twenty-two years on one subject alone; or at the rate of nearly two hundred and fifty books a year. But where did Mr. Dixon find five thousand volumes bearing on the reconstruction period? There must be a mistake somewhere.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

Is Rivalled by Human Hair Where Dandruff is Eradicated.

Sealskin is admired the world over for its softness and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Persistent Minister Finds Sign on Church Door "Nothing Doing."
(New Rochelle Dispatch to New York Herald.)

A bitter fight is on among the members of the Bethesda Colored Baptist church because the pastor, the Rev. W. B. John, recently involved the congregation in debt for $65 by buying a typewriter to write his sermons on. Mr. John explained that his sermons were so long he could not get them out by hand. The members of the church have been paying for the machine in ten dollar instalments.

The trouble began on last Thursday night, when one of the trustees said that he had discovered that the typewriter machine had cost only $45 and that the parson was charging the congregation $20 too much. The trustees by a vote of 30 to 16, decided after investigating the charge, to oust him.

This caused a protest from the sisters of the church. In the excitement George Ross, a leading negro expressman of New Rochelle, was hit on the head and nearly killed. To-day the Rev. Mr. John and his friends found the doors locked and detectives on guard. A big sign on the door read: "Nothing doing here to-day."

Does What Other Stoves Fail to Do

In almost every house there is a room that the heat from the other stoves or furnace fails to reach. It may be a room on the "weather" side, or one having no heat connection. It may be a cold hallway. No matter in what part of the house—whether room or hallway—it can soon be made snug and cozy with a

PERFECTION Oil Heater

(Equipped with Smokeless Device)

Unlike ordinary oil heaters the Perfection gives satisfaction always. First and foremost it is absolutely safe—you cannot turn the wick too high or too low. Gives intense heat without smoke or smell because equipped with smokeless device. Can be easily carried from room to room. As easy to operate as a lamp. Ornamental as well as useful. Made in two finishes—nickel and japan. Brass oil font beautifully embossed. Holds 4 quarts of oil and burns 9 hours. There's real satisfaction in a Perfection Oil Heater. Every heater warranted. If not at your dealer's write our nearest agency for descriptive circular.

The Rayo Lamp makes the home bright. Is the safest and best lamp for all-round household use. Gives a clear, steady light. Fitted with latest improved burner. Made of brass throughout and nickel plated. Every lamp warranted. Suitable for library, dining room, parlor or bedroom. If not at your dealer's write to nearest agency.

—Spencer, Oct. 29—The fifth car load of strike-breakers arrived at the Southern shops here to-day, making nearly 200 new men employed in place of the strikers. The men were promptly put to work and it is stated the work of the shops is progressing rapidly. The premises are guarded constantly and only employees are allowed near the buildings where the new men are at work. It is stated that a considerable number of the strike-breakers have quit work and returned to their former homes claiming that they do not wish to take the place of the strikers.

—Intense bitterness is expressed on the streets of Raleigh against Detective Blivins, who shot and killed W. H. Bryson in the yards of the Seaboard Air Line in Raleigh Saturday night. On Monday after the coroner's inquest Blivins was committed to jail without bail. The inquest was conducted at great length. It was found that the dead man was W. H. Bryson, of Colon, in Chatham county, and that he boarded here for a while at the house of Mrs. Coppage. He was identified by fellow boarders. He was buried this afternoon at 3 o'clock. When the inquest ended the coroner said the evidence looked very much like a case of murder in the first degree.

—Greensboro, special, Oct. 29.—William E. Cummins, one of the substantial citizens of this county, residing near Guilford College, lost both his residence and barn by fire yesterday afternoon. The whole roof of the house was on fire before it was discovered. A feather bed, two quilts, six chairs and a desk were the only articles of furniture saved from the flames. A defective flue in the kitchen was the cause of the fire. The wind carried brands to the roof of the barn and in a few minutes it was a seething mass of flames. Mr. Cummins carried no insurance whatever on his property. He estimates his loss at about $7,000.

—Charlotte Observer.—City Treasurer and Clerk C. M. Etheridge yesterday finished the mammoth task of tabulating and arranging the city tax books for the present fiscal year. The work has required several weeks of tedious work and has been done in a most painstaking and thorough manner, every item proving out exactly. The assessed value of property in the city of Charlotte is as follows: Real property, $5,534,140; personal property, $4,440,240; polls, 2,243, valued at $200, $448,600; total $10,428,980. The increase in valuation over last year is $800,520, the total valuation last year being $9,628,460. The number of polls last year were 2,071 against the 2,243 this year. The city tax amounts to 1 per cent. on all property, estimating a poll at $200. Thus the total revenue of the city from taxes this year will be $104,289.80. This is divided into two funds: school fund $20,857.96; general fund, $83,431.84.

—Charlotte Observer.—The English girls were at it again last night; they assembled in the hall over Belk Brothers' store, in the Davidson building and danced until a late hour. Miss Monica Roach, of Ireland, was the belle of the ball and Mr. Henry Swing, a handsome young Englishman, who came to this country many years ago, was her beau. Baptist John Asbury, one of the likeliest looking fellows on the Charlotte police force, was on hand to see that the foreigners were not mistreated in any way. Chief Irwin was so kind as to lend him for the occasion. At 8:30 Mr. Will Owens, who has charge of the rooms, turned the key in the lock and let the first contingent of girls in. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson and the baby, Prince Norman, were there to chaperone the crowd. The young woman wore fascinators over their heads and roses in their hair. Frank Nolan and other boys were there.

—Statesville, special, Oct. 29.—Congressman Blackburn and Mr. Jake F. Newell of Charlotte, spoke at the court house to-day during the noon recess. Mr. Newell spoke first, Mr. Blackburn following. They had a very good-sized audience, many of their hearers being Democrats. Mr. Blackburn did not make a connected argument. He declares that he is the biggest man in the country except President Roosevelt, citing as proof of the statement the fact that men of national reputation such as William J. Bryan and John Sharp Williams, had been sent into his district to oppose him. The feature of his speech was his attack on Hackett. He ridiculed the McEwen affidavits by saying that McEwen was a jailbird, that he had been indicted for blockading seven years before he (Blackburn) went to Congress, that while McEwen's father was deputy collector in Wilkes, McEwen's distillery was seized that Hackett was selected to appraise it and valued the distillery at $7 and the liquor at 4 cents a gallon. Blackburn said that this was a matter of record but he did not produce the record. This was followed by charges involving Hackett's moral character, the same charges that have been circulated through the district since the campaign began.

ROCK CLIFF LITHIA SPRINGS WATER.

READ WHAT ONE OF THE MOST NOTED CITIZENS OF SOUTH CAROLINA HAS TO SAY OF THE FAMOUS ROCK CLIFF SPRINGS WATER.

Spartanburg, S. C., July 24.

To Rock Cliff Lithia Springs Co.:
Gentlemen:—This will certify that I was severely afflicted with a serious case of erysipelas, that confined me to my bed for about six months or more, with daily attendance of my physician, and which eventually settled in my left leg and became so severe that a consultation of three physicians was held and the decision reached that the lower part of my leg would have to be amputated to prevent the disease extending to the upper part of my leg and body. I declined the operation and was advised to try Rock Cliff Lithia Springs Water. I engaged board near the spring and was advised to bathe my leg in the water, at the same time drinking freely.

This application soon soothed the pain, and for the first time in months previous I slept for about two hours. After a week's treatment, without any medicine or physician's help, I walked to the spring on crutches. I continued the treatment daily, and within two weeks was able to walk to the spring without crutches and in four weeks was able to walk home, a distance of 1½ miles, and resume my official business.

I was permanently cured by the use of the water, and take great pleasure in giving you this testimonial to the efficiency of the Rock Cliff Springs Water in the treatment of erysipelas.

Distinction in Dress

A handsome stylish suit plays a great part in a man's appearance. It is true that a man may be a perfect gentleman and still be dressed in an ill-fitting, poorly made suit of clothes, but the world is sure to misjudge him.

While the clothes do not make the man they influence the first verdict of opinion rendered concerning him. We've suits from the shops of the world's best makers. Fairly priced when we name such reasonable figures as $10.00, $12.50, $15.00, $18.00, $20.00, $30.00.

You are very welcome to overhaul them, get a line on the excellent patterns, and "try on" as many styles as you like.

Make this your clothing store and you'll never have clothes disappointments.

"THE ONE WOMAN" COMING.

Much Interest in Thomas Dixon's Big Comedy Drama Success.

Dixon's "The One Woman" comes to the Academy Saturday and its appearance will mark, no doubt, two exceedingly large audiences for the local playhouse. The theatre-going public seems taking a keen interest in the presentation here of "The One Woman" and indications are that there will be a rush for seats both for the matinee and night, for the play is to be presented twice Saturday.

"The One Woman" is said to be a more powerful drama than "The Clansman," which is also from the pen of Mr. Thomas Dixon, and deals with a very timely subject—that of Socialism. With very few exceptions the press wherever "The One Woman" has been presented has highly praised it and has devoted several columns of criticism each to the play and production. The press of North Carolina has paid the piece high tribute.

"The One Woman" will be given a magnificent scenic production and the cast will be a most capable one, including Mr. Austin Webb, who last season appeared at the Academy as the negro lieutenant governor in "The Clansman." All who witnessed "The Clansman" remember well his able portrayal of the difficult role.

The matinee prices will be up to $1 and at night the scale will go to $1.50.

BASKET BALL SERIES.

Games Will Begin at Y. M. C. A. On Saturday Night—The Teams.

A series of basket ball games between teams which will be named for several departments of the general offices of the Atlantic Coast Line in this city and composed largely of players from those offices will begin Saturday night at the Y. M. C. A. and continue throughout the Winter with two games each week. Some fine sport is assured and already there is much good natured rivalry among the organizations.

The teams that will meet Saturday night will be the Purchasing Agents and the Car Accountants and the Auditor of Freight Receipts and the Relief Department. It will be a six-team league and the two other teams will be the Independents and the Freight Claim Agents. The line-up of the teams that will play Saturday night follows:

Purchasing Agents—S. L. King, J.
U. King, H. A. Harding, Ben Thees,
O. K. Wallace, J. N. Parker, L. B.
Rogers and Dave Seifert.

Car Accountants—Joe Jacobs, J. T.
King, Herbert Kendall, T. L. Cromartie, C. C. Cochran and J. M. Taylor.
Auditor of Freight Receipts—R. P.
Houston, B. H. Houston, Jr., R. G.
Davis, W. C. VonGlabn, Jr., H. Stevens and Bryan Newkirk.

Relief Department—W. L. King, Joe Brinkley, E. O. Hunter, W. N. Freeman and R. K. Rutledge.

A MUSICAL TREAT.

Miss Mary Lyle McClure to Appear
Next Monday Evening.

Wilmington lovers of music have a treat in store for them in the appearance here of Miss Mary Lyle McClure of New York, a fine pianist and a sister of Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, who will give a recital in the hall of the Boys'
Brigade building, Monday evening,
November 5th, 1906. Miss Sarah Peck Hines, a fine elocutionist, will give some readings during this recital. The arrangements are under the auspices of The Ladies' Aid Society of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. Attention is called to the following from the Anniston (Ala.) Evening Star:

"As the distinguished artist with majestic grace entered the hall, she was greeted with a burst of applause.
A glance at the programme revealed to the audience the fact that Miss McClure is a broad musician who does not confine her work to few composers.
To each she was equal—the dainty Gavotte, Gluck-Brahms—the exquisite Schumann number, so full of feeling and others."

braud if you want an ideal beer. Phone

THE PRIMROSE MINSTRELS.

Big Company Will Appear at Academy
Tomorrow Matinee and Night.

George Primrose and his big Minstrel Company will play an engagement at the Academy to-day matinee and night. This engagement will again emphasize the fact that negro minstrelsy is not dead, as this form of entertainment is entirely an American feature which has gradually drifted away from the idea of its originators. There was a time when the public would stand for a so-called minstrel show to appear in Oriental scenes and costumes, powdered wigs and painted faces, which was rather charming to look upon, because it was new, but this style has lost its novelty and is no longer charming and furthermore, theater-goers now want American minstrelsy that is true to negro life of plantation days and truly a feature of our own country. Mr.
Primrose is the first to furnish this genuine form of amusement, but with modern embellishments of a kind that enhances the effect. The gaudily decked costumes and white-face minstrelsy has seen its day. In its place has come the merry darky fun intermingled with the up-to-date songs and dances, led by George Primrose. The matinee prices will be 25c, 50c and 75c.
There is no advance in prices for tonight.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

MAYOR'S COURT YESTERDAY.

Several Sentenced to Roads—Some Paid Their Fines.

Joe Johnson, colored, arrested at Seventh and Nun streets, by Officer Leon George, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was fined $10 and costs by the Mayor yesterday. In default of the fine he went to the roads for 30 days. Ben Dew and Henry Henderson, both colored and arrested in the same vicinity by the same officer, were fined $10 and costs and $5 and costs respectively.

G. A. Ransbun, a sailor, arrested for drunkenness at Fourth and Bladen streets, was given 10 days on the roads. He has given the police no end of trouble lately and the Mayor decided upon the sentence as the best way out of a difficulty.

For quality, purity, age and strength

DRAW CAUSED CATASTROPHE.

Atlantic City Horror Due to Device
Wanted at Wrightsville.

Readers of the Associated Press accounts of the terrible catastrophe at Atlantic City Sunday will realize with horror that the cause of the appalling accident was a draw bridge of the kind which it is sought to compel the Consolidated Company to put in at Wrightsville under much the same conditions as probably obtained a few years ago at the famous beach resort North. Under head of "What Caused the Accident," the New York Herald in its account of the accident says:

"The train left Camden, N. J., opposite Philadelphia, at 1 P. M., and was due here at 2:30 P. M. The trestle-like bridge it was crossing joins this city with the mainland. The tracks are about fifteen feet above the water. The accident was caused by the fact that the rails on the draw were not exactly in line with those on which the approaching train was running at a good rate of speed, although it had slowed down on approaching the draw."

A special to the New York Times
from Atlantic City says:

"Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 28.—At least 50 persons lost their lives this afternoon when a three-car train of the Pennsylvania Railroad's newly equipped electric service from Camden to this resort plunged into the water from a drawbridge. The exact number of the dead will not be known until morning, when divers are expected to reach the cars, now submerged."

"The accident occurred at the Thoroughfare, a stream something like the Coney Island Creek at New York's resort, and similarly situated.
"Whether the accident resulted from the spreading of rails or to the failure of overlapping rails to meet nicely at the drawbridge has not been determined yet. The latter theory seems to be held by most of those who have looked into the conditions."

—Towne: "Yes, you must be mistaken about Crooks. He's not out of politics." Browne: "But I'm certain I heard him say so himself. I understood him to say that he was out for good and all." Towne: "You probably misunderstood him. He probably said he was out for the good and all."

HEARST GAINS IN NEW YORK

Republicans Alarmed by Attitude of Working Men—Hearst Campaign Up-State Had Telling Effect—Holds Own in City.

Washington Post.
New York, Oct. 28.—As the last week of the campaign draws near, it becomes more and more apparent, in spite of the rainbow statements that are being put out by the Republican managers, that Hearst has gained greatly in strength in many counties outside of the city, and that here he is at least holding his own. Apparently he is directing all his energies to capturing the so-called labor vote, Democratic and Republican, and apparently he is making a great success of the movement. If he had to depend upon straight Democratic votes exclusively, there is not the slightest doubt that he would be buried under a mountain of votes, for the so-called old-line Democrats are as bitter as ever against him, and the number of them who say publicly every day that they won't support him on the ground that he is not a Democrat is very large.

These statements of backsliders come from every county in the State and the total must be enormous in view of the fact that party men, as a rule, who are going to bolt, refuse to let it be known.

In this case, however, thousands of Democrats, most of them in high standing, in their communities, have not hesitated in denouncing Hearst publicly, and declaring that they will support Hughes. Now, the hope of Hearst managers is to more than offset the defection with the votes of the workmen, who supported both McKinley and Roosevelt, and there are signs everywhere that the movement is succeeding.

A statement in these dispatches last week that a poll of a manufacturing plant up the State that employs nearly 15,000 men showed only 176 for Hughes, was thought to be an error. It was declared the number of men employed must be 1,500 instead of 15,000, owing to the smallness of the Hughes vote indicated. But the figures were correct.

This is merely a straw—a pretty big one—to indicate the way the wind is blowing in labor circles. Reports come from many manufacturing towns of Hearst's great and growing strength among union voters. He has devoted most of his time to campaigning up-State and the effects of his work are plainly visible in such cities as Watertown, Ogdensburg, Syracuse, Amsterdam, Schenectady and Troy, where there are large manufacturing interests. And, strangest of all, Albany, where there is scarcely any manufacturing, gave him the largest and most enthusiastic reception of the whole tour.

Here in this city, too, his reception upon the platform during the past week would indicate that he has lost very little of his old-time popularity with the masses in Manhattan and the Bronx.

At Cleveland, O., last night the barge Maurice B. Grover, was burned just inside the breakwater. The fire was discovered about 9 o'clock and the crew from the life saving station went to her rescue in tug. A storm which had whipped the lake into a heavy and dangerous sea delayed the tugs and when they arrived the craft was practically destroyed. It was at first thought that several of the crew had either been burned to death or had drowned, but it is now believed there was no loss of life.

KEEP THE KIDNEY'S WELL.

Health is Worth Saving and Some People Know How to Save It.

Many Wilmington people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is the statement of a Wilmington citizen who has reclaimed good health by the use of this remedy:

J. E. Bloodworth, residing at 30 South Front street and employed at 123 Princess street, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they have proven to be a very valuable remedy and I believe I am safe in recommending them. My back and kidneys have given me great trouble. I thought I had rheumatism. I had shooting pains through my back and sides which often made me yell right out. If I stood, sat or lay down or kept in one position for any length of time it was almost impossible for me to move on account of the great pain. I heard some one speak of Doan's Kidney Pills and I sent down to Bellamy's drug store and got a box. They completely removed the pains. They are without doubt a valuable remedy for back-ache."

"Wilson Heaters"

(Only Highest Grade Materials Used.)

The Wilson Heater will produce more heat from a unit of fuel, and keep your home at a more even temperature, with little or no trouble, and fewer ashes than any other heater made.

There is no Noxious Gas, Offensive Smoke or Cold Floor Draft where the Wilson Coal Heater is used.

Holds fire 36 hours or longer. The combustion is perfect—the heat does not go up the chimney. Burns every particle of the coal; does not make clinkers and leaves very little ash. Other stoves look much like the Wilson, but—that's all. None of them work like the Wilson and none are so good.

STRANGE CASE OF MURDERER

Ben Williams Under Sentence of Death Laid Forgotten in Jail at Raleigh—Governor Glenn Made Remarkable Discovery.

(Raleigh News and Observer.)
Sentenced to death and forgotten, was the peculiar situation of Benjamin Williams, the negro who nearly a year ago shot and killed in the most cold-blooded manner Alexander Clarke, another negro.

Yesterday, however, Governor Glenn became aware of the peculiar circumstances of the case and issued his warrant for the execution. Williams will hang on December 20th.

Williams was tried, convicted and sentenced to death. He took an appeal, which carried his case over to the Supreme Court. In September the Supreme Court dismissed the appeal, without writing an opinion, although the justices examined the record, the case being a capital one.

Since then the judgment of the Supreme Court has been certified down to the Superior Court, but that was the end of the matter.

The Governor, upon whose warrant alone, the death sentence may be inflicted after execution has been stayed by appeal, took no action.

In the meantime, except as an inmate of the jail, Williams has had no standing and had dropped from interest or attention.

The novel circumstances arose through a technicality of procedure. Ordinarily when one convicted of murder in the first degree appeals, and the sentence is affirmed by the Supreme Court, the decision, if the day set by the judge for the execution has passed, is certified to the Governor, who issues his death warrant to the sheriff.

But in Williams' case, the appeal was not perfected, and hence there was no opinion to be certified to the Governor. Hence the Governor knew nothing about the case. The judgment was duly certified to the Superior Court, but there was no authority in its officers to set a date for the execution of the sentence. Hence, Williams remained in jail, a dead man, but alive and with every apparent chance of remaining alive.

Had it not been for a casual conversation in the Governor's office yesterday, the man would still be an indefinite boarder at the jail, eating his due allowance at the expense of the county. The law having done all that was required of it through the courts, the courts had nothing else to do; the Governor, not expected to have notice and actually having no notice of the situation, did nothing. Except for the casual conversation above mentioned, Williams might have remained for a long term, practically a life prisoner in jail.

As it was, the attention of the Governor having been called to the situation by a question as to whether any disposition had been made of the case, got into communication with Clerk of the Court Kenan and had the judgment certified to his office with the result that he duly ordered the execution.

Williams' term is therefore limited, where it was formerly entirely indefinite.

The crime for which Williams will hang was the deliberate shooting near the Seaboard Air Line Johnson Street depot, of Alexander Clarke, also a negro. The motive was supposedly jealousy, Clarke having stopped at the house of a woman with whom Williams was on terms of intimacy. On the day of the killing, he drank a quantity of whiskey, procured a pistol, made threats to several persons that he was going to kill Clarke and later went to the house where he found his victim and shot him through the head. Williams immediately fled but was soon recaptured.

RACE PREJUDICE MADE PROFITABLE

Shrewd Scheme Concocted in New York by Negroes—Worked All Right but White Allies Captured the Spoils.

(Columbia Record.)

As an example there is an "Afro-American real estate company" in New York, an organization conceived, formed and operated by negroes. Its object is a shrewd one, that being to turn a natural race prejudice everywhere shown in this country, into dollars and cents. In fact, in the prospectus that was the announced intention of the organization. The company had to secure co-operation of white men, which it easily did, but the whole idea originated in negro brains.

The mode of operation of the company was to lease large dwelling apartment houses in New York city in those sections of it exclusively inhabited by white people. While tenants were given notice to get out as quickly as the law permitted, and placards were posted offering the apartments to rent to negroes. A great and righteous howl of indignation naturally arose among the adjacent white dwellers as well as property owners. The presence of negro tenants in any neighborhood decreased the value of property, as white people did not want them as neighbors. In one or two instances, despite protests and all legal efforts, negro tenants were actually installed in such neighborhoods. Then began an exodus of whites to other sections and much lamentation on part of landlords.

A few more leases with threats to install negroes quickly induced landlords to sell valuable houses that they otherwise would not have sold and at prices that the buyers almost named. These buyers were white real estate dealers in collusion with the Afro-American company. They got valuable property for a song, as it were, while the Afro-American company got well paid to release its lease. Then the new owners were persuaded not to put negroes in, the white residents calmed themselves and everybody but the former landlords were happy.

It was a shrewd scheme and easily worked. The promoters of the Afro-American company were growing rich. The scheme was capable of unlimited development, but the officials, becoming greedy, pocketed the largest part of the profits, leaving the negro stockholders to look as pleasant as possible under the circumstances. They have now entered suit to recover the money they put in the company, charging they were, being swindled. Through this suit the real object or the foundation motive of the company was disclosed. The exposure will likely result in killing the goose that laid the golden egg.

It all shows that no sympathy need be wasted over the supposed handicap the negro is under in business. Men who could think of a scheme to turn race prejudice into money, to make it commercial capital, can take care of themselves. True politicians have long "been on" to the scheme of getting office through it, but making it a money asset is entirely new, shrewd and very clever.

Blood Poisoning

THE COTTON MARKET.

New York, Oct. 30.—The cotton market was less active today and after quite a sharp opening advance, lost the gain under a renewal of liquidation and bear pressure. The close was steady at an advance of 2 points to a decline of one point. Sales for the day were reported of 225,000 bales. The opening was steady with an advance of 11 to 13 points in response to higher cables and reports of frost over the belt. Trading was not active at the advance but there was no sign of the bear pressure which was one of the prominent features of the previous day, and prices steadied up as a result of covering and the forecast for continued cold weather until they showed a net advance of about 15 to 18 1/2 points. At this level buyers of yesterday turned for profits and in the later trading there was active selling for both accounts under which the market broke to a net loss of about 3 to 4 points on the active months. The close was 2 or 3 points up from the lowest as a result of profit taking by scalpers on the short side but the market showed little improvement in point of tone.

Receipts at the ports today were 115,657 bales against 113,994 last week and 97,458 last year. For the week (as estimated) 465,000 bales against 467,415 last week and 350,280 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 18,299 bales against 25,100 last year and at Houston 39,829 bales against 33,359 last year.

Spot cotton closed steady; middling uplands 10.50; middling gulf 10.75; sales none.

UTE INDIANS CAUSING ALARM

Band in Wyoming Getting Bolder and Pay no Attention to Soldiers.

RED MEN ARE ENTRENCHED

Band Determined to Visit Chief White Cow Bull, of Cheyennes—White Settlers Threaten to Exterminate Red Skins.

By Wire to The Morning Star.
Sheridan, Wyo., Oct. 30.—"We are going to visit Chief White Cow Bull, of the Cheyennes, at any cost, and will not be taken back to Utah to starve. We would rather die first," is the substance of the answer of Chief Kannap to the soldiers. The Indians are getting bolder and pay no attention to the soldiers. A fight was almost started last night when an Indian encountered a sentinel of the Tenth Cavalry. The Indian refused to turn out of the path and rudely bumped against the soldier. Only the intervention of some cavalrymen prevented a serious encounter, as other Indians came up. As the Utes are continually on the move in small bands, cowboys are hired by the soldiers as scouts to keep track of the Indians. The latest report from the front locates the main Ute band in the vicinity of Morehead, going rapidly toward the Cheyenne reservation. Two more troop trains are following the first train unloaded at Arvada this morning.

The Indians are becoming more bold. Dock Spear and E. H. Gottings, who encountered a band of thirty Indians, were fired upon and one of their horses was killed. The Spear round up wagon was looted by another band of Utes who left the camp cook bound and gagged and carried off all supplies and bedding. Old settlers near Moorhead, Mont., are sending the women and children to places of safety and have turned the Spear blacksmith shop into a fort, banking the sides and boring loopholes in the log walls.

Colonel Hensel, who was government scout and interpreter in the Battle of Wounded Knee, says the Indians mean fight and gives it as his opinion that they have sent messengers to seek the assistance of the warlike Cheyennes.

The Indians say they want President Roosevelt to give them the Powder River Valley for a hunting ground and persist in their determination not to be taken back to Utah.

The settlers along the Powder River say that if the Indians are allowed to remain in that vicinity the settlers will organize and exterminate the red skins in spite of the troops.

Indians Entrenched.

Billings, Mon., Oct. 30.—A telephone message from Arvada, Wyoming, this afternoon says that the renegade Ute Indians are entrenched in a strong position in the hills adjacent to Arvada and that the troops of the Tenth and Sixth cavalry are reconnoitering the country preparatory to closing in on the Red Skins. Apparently the object of the troop is to awe the Indians with a display of superior force and thus secure a surrender without bloodshed. The Utes are determined not to give in to the soldiers until they are compelled to do so, believing that if they surrender it will mean their return to Utah, where they say they cannot secure enough to eat. The Utes procured a supply of ammunition and food at Cheyenne and Gillette, and if the temper of the leading tribesmen can be taken as an indication they propose to fight, or at least make a show of resistance. By this means they hope to secure concessions from the soldiers and be permitted to make their way to the Cheyenne reservation and remain there pending a disposition of their case at Washington. To-night the camp fires of the Indians are blazing brightly. The Utes are not painted, nor are they dancing.

LIABILITY OF TOWING TUGS.

Must Have Proper Lines to Meet Emergencies.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 30.—Federal Judge Waddill to-day handed down an opinion in the $25,000 admiralty suit of the Standard Dredging Company of Wilmington, Delaware, against the Baltimore Ocean Tug Britannia for the loss of two valuable scows being brought from Mobile to Baltimore, via Charleston, S. C.

The court holds that the libellant was partly responsible by reason of the alleged unseaworthiness of the barges and the towing tug partially responsible, in the first place, for not having a proper towing line, and secondly for not carrying a second towing line in the event of an emergency. The court holds that while craft being towed should have proper lines of their own, in event of emergency, it is the duty of the towing vessel to supply these proper emergency lines whether the other vessel has them or not. The final opinion of the court is that the damages should be borne equally, with a decree against the tug for one-half of the damages sustained by the loss of the two scows at $25,000.

ROOSEVELT WORDS HOME TO ROOST

Hearst Throws Republican Ranks Into Consternation by Quoting President's Speeches

CHAIRMAN WOODRUFF HOT

Wants Mr. Roosevelt to Repudiate Harmful Utterances Taken from His Speeches—Lively Times
Among Campaigners.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)
New York, Oct. 30.—Timothy L. Woodruff, chairman of the State Republican committee, said to-day that he will advise President Roosevelt to repudiate a campaign document issued by the Independent League in support of W. E. Hearst's candidacy for governor. Mr. Woodruff objects to the publication in parallel columns of extracts from the speeches of the President and Mr. Hearst as to the proper use of wealth. Mr. Woodruff said concerning the publication:

"It is earnestly hoped that President Roosevelt, who has to a degree, all along maintained a position that he could not interfere in local politics, will take up this matter, and denounce the author of the illusion. It was expected all along that some such an effort as this would be made by Hearst to influence the voters."

"My attention was called to the Hearst publication yesterday and I made an investigation which disclosed the facts regarding the publication of the parallel views of the President and Hearst. I found it to be a serious matter, and will urge upon the President the advisability of breaking his rule of silence in local political matters and reply to this insinuation."

"I am aware that the President is not inclined to interfere in State politics, but in view of this publication, I would strongly urge that the President break his silence and repudiate the author of or the man who would benefit by that statement."

The publication referred to by Mr. Woodruff quotes President Roosevelt's speech at Oyster Bay September 8, 1906, when he is represented as saying that the multi-millionaire is not a harm, but a good to the community if he appreciates that he is only a trustee for that wealth and uses it in causes of goodness. From a speech of the President at Washington on July 6th, last, he is quoted as saying that very wealthy men may sometimes play a useful part in life, but there are fully as useful lives which are expended in different fields from those of money-getting. To heap riches on riches, the President is quoted as saying, is merely an evil. Against this Mr. Hearst is quoted in a parallel column as saying there should be as far as possible an equal distribution of wealth, that he believed in organizations that tend to distribute wealth, that its distribution is as important as its creation and that "one law-defying millionaire in jail will do more than any other single thing to regulate trust inequality."

Root to Speak for Roosevelt.

Washington, Oct. 30.—No comment was obtainable at the White House on the statement made by Chairman Woodruff that he will advise President Roosevelt to repudiate a campaign document issued by the Independence League in support of Mr. Hearst's candidacy, for governor of New York. The speech to be made by Secretary Root at Utica, on November 1st, will, it said at the White House, represent the administration's views on the pending issues in the campaign. The President and Mr. Root have consulted freely about the position to be taken by the Secretary in that speech.

President Roosevelt has steadfastly adhered to his determination not to write any letter or make public any communication bearing on the campaign in New York. He had repeatedly expressed to his callers his sincere desire for the election of Mr. Hughes.

BAD EFFECT OF "THE CLANSMAN"

Caused Trouble Between Whites and Blacks in Mississippi.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 30.—A Brookhaven, Miss., dispatch says: "As a result of a production of 'The Clansman' in this city last week and threats circulated by whites that a Ku Klux Klan was being organized to drive negroes from the community, the blacks formed into a band of white caps and already have started a series of depredations on the whites. News has reached here from Bear Creek in Lincoln county that 'Bud' Godbold, a young white farmer, was fired upon by negro white caps while riding through a lonely stretch of woods. His horse was killed, but Godbold escaped. According to Godbold's story a white man riding a hundred yards behind him was simultaneously attacked by the blacks. Officers have gone to the scene of the ambush. The story circulated that whites would form a Ku Klux Klan, was done as a joke, it is asserted, but the blacks took the joke at their word. The excitement is intense."

MISSING DEAD AT ATLANTIC CITY

Fifty-Six Known to have Perished in Bridge Accident Sunday Afternoon.

TEN PEOPLE STILL MISSING

Pennsylvania Railroad Officials Want To Shift Blame to Dead—Motor-man Who Went Down to Death With His Own Train.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)
Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 30.—Following a conference to-day with City Solicitor Wooten, Coroner Gaskill declared that it is absolutely certain that more persons were killed in the Pennsylvania Railroad Electric train disaster than is shown by the number of bodies recovered. The coroner says that he has information which proves that the number of passengers on the train was at least 91 as originally stated; that there were 76 through passengers from Camden and 15 persons riding on passes. A few got off at way stations, but more got on at Pleasantville and other points. The official number of identified dead shown by the coroner's reports made at noon to-day on the basis of death certificates issued is 48. There is one body partially identified and two unclaimed, making a total of 51. Five are known to have been killed whose bodies have not been recovered, increasing the number to 56 killed. According to the coroner's statement there are 35 to be accounted for. Twenty-five are known to have escaped death, leaving at least 10 persons more who are supposed to have perished in the accident.

The investigation on Thursday, which is expected to be conducted by the coroner, promises to be one of great convenience to this city and to the Pennsylvania railroad. Upon the finding of the jury and the result of the investigation, the coroner says, will depend whether the railroad will be compelled to build a new bridge over the Thoroughfare for its electric trains.

A railroad official said to-day that an examination of the tracks and the wrecked cars indicates that the first car of the train could not have been the car that twisted the rail. The truck of the second car, however, it is asserted, displays signs of having caused the trouble. It is said that when the second car entered the driveway section of the bridge the structure began to jostle under the heavy strain and the second car left the tracks dragging the others along. This theory of the railroad officials is not agreed to by witnesses who saw the train go overboard. They claim that the front car left the bridge first and dragged the others with it. There appears to be an attempt to hold Scott, the dead motorman, responsible for the accident. It is declared that the accident could not have occurred had not the motorman tried to cross the bridge at a speed greater than allowed by the rules of the company. The railroad men are satisfied, they say, that the bridge was securely locked.

The trucks of the three cars were lifted out of the water to-day. General Manager Atterbury of the Pennsylvania Company and Superintendent of Motive Power Gibbs, were present and looked the trucks over carefully. All of the trucks were placed on the southbound track by order of Mr. Atterbury and drawn by a steam engine over the same tracks that caused the horrible accident of Sunday. This test proved to the satisfaction of the railroad men that the first car could not have successfully passed the twisted rail and the second car in bounding over might have jostled the other cars off the rails.

More Bodies Recovered.

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 30.—The contention of Coroner Gaskill that a number of persons who lost their lives in the wreck on the Thoroughfare bridge may be buried in the mud where the cars plunged, was borne out to-day when the bodies of Mrs. Paul Felsburg, Mrs. Selma Johnson and that of Mrs. Sarah Miller were recovered from under the third car. That of Mrs. Miller was pinned in the wreckage, but that of Mrs. Felsburg floated up to the view of the workmen. Mrs. Johnson's body was found some time later, caught under the wreckage. All were cut and battered. The finding of these bodies increases the official identified dead to 51 and the total number of bodies recovered to 54. There are still known to be among the dead the bodies of Mrs. Frank Monroe, Joseph McElroy, H. N. Burch and Arman Alexis Tedesco, which makes the certain number of dead in the wreck to 58, there is still remaining at various mortuaries three unclaimed bodies.

The finding of the body of Mrs. Miller was followed at the temporary morgue by one of the most pathetic scenes in the entire heart-rending affair.

CHICAGO'S 5,000 SALOONS

Great Drawback to Refuge Work
Where 10,000 Girls Work for $5 a Week—Fathers' and Pastors Cigars Bewailed.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)
Hartford, Conn., October 30.—"There are 10,000 young women in Chicago who are obliged to work at $5 a week and there is 5,000 saloons there too," said Mrs. Lurinda B. Smith, of Kansas, at the afternoon session of the National Convention Woman's Christian Temperance Union, in presenting to the convention the difficulties with which the refuge workers of the organization have to contend. Mrs. Smith made a spirited appeal for the efforts of all the delegates from all parts of the country to put a stop to the white slave trade. The speaker cited instances of young women held in captivity and sold at auction in New York and asked why it was forty years after the Civil War had been fought for the liberation of the black slaves, that slavery of young women should be tolerated in this country. She said that one of the most hopeful signs of the times was when the fifteen nations recently banded together for the suppression of this awful vice.

In an address on "anti-narcotics," Mrs. E. B. Ingalls, of Missouri, said: "Give the boy a chance" will be the watchword of the narcotic department the coming year. To do this we must first clear the home of his father's cigar of his pastor's cigar, of his teacher's cigar, of his brother's big pipe, of his sister's soothing syrup and of his mother's headache powders. If the air was free from smoke and the medicine closet from opium and kindred drugs, our little men, and our little women also, would have a clearer inheritance and a better hold on health and immortality."

The final report of the committee on credentials showed the largest number that ever attended a conference of the union.

A letter was read from Norfolk, Va., inviting the National W. C. T. U. to meet in that city in 1907. The invitation was signed by the various organizations behind the ter-centennial. The election of officers resulted as follows, most of them being re-elections:

President—Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens, Portland, Maine.

Vice-President—Miss Anna A. Gordon, Evanston, Ills.

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Susanna M. D. Fry, Evanston, Ills.

Recording Secretary—Mrs. Elizabeth Preston Anderson, Valley City, N. D.

Treasurer—Mrs. Harriet Wright Brand, Evanston, Ills.

Assistant Recording Secretary—Mrs. Howard M. Hoge, Lincoln, Va.

MOB AFTER NEGRO IN OHIO.

Attacked Jail But Sheriff Spirited Negro Murderer Away.

Dayton, O., Oct. 30.—George Basore, town marshal of Franklin, 15 miles south of this city, was shot and instantly killed this morning while attempting to arrest George White, a negro suspected of being implicated in robberies there during the past two weeks. White was captured after an exciting chase through the town and is now in the town jail. The people are enraged and mob violence is feared.

The whole town of Franklin is wrought up over the affair and colored people are being chased out without having been given time to explain. Passengers from Cincinnati over the traction line that runs to this city, came on through and declare they would not stop in Franklin as indications pointed to more serious complications to-night.

The negro held his pursuers at bay until shot in the right arm when he surrendered. A mob composed of about 300 men and boys attacked the Franklin jail, bent on lynching the negro. While they were forcing an entrance in the rear Sheriff Patterson and deputies took White out the front way, placed him in an automobile and made a speedy run for Lebanon, the county seat. The departing automobile was fired at by armed members of the mob.

In Atlanta yesterday a charter was granted to the Western and Gulf Railroad Company with an authorized capital of $400,000. The proposed new line which will be 85 miles long, will connect Hawkinsville, Americus and Dawson in Southern Georgia, connecting with the Southern Railway at Hawkinsville.

Secretary Root has received the following cablegram from Ambassador Wright, dated Tokio, yesterday: "Substance of your telegram of 23rd given to the press by the Japanese government has been received with satisfaction by the Japanese people and has had a very quieting effect."
